National Healthcare Day for the Homeless

The Homeless Coalition of Palm Beach County will host Project Homeless Connect on Wednesday, August 13th in conjunction with National Healthcare Day for the Homeless.

The Homeless Coalition organizes Project Homeless Connect four times a year to gather service providers in one location to give those who are experiencing homelessness the opportunity to move their lives forward. "The August event comes right before kids go back to school in Palm Beach County," said Homeless Coalition executive director Marilyn Munoz. "Parents can get school items for the kids and take advantage of the expanded wellness services."

For National Healthcare Day for the Homeless, the Homeless Coalition is partnering with Genesis Community Health and CAIR to offer more services to more people. Participating homeless individuals will have access to free haircuts, identification help, healthy food and clothing. There will also be free HIV and pregnancy tests, along with dental and vision screenings and vouchers for follow up care.

Please join us for Project Homeless Connect on Wednesday August 13, 2014 from 9am to 1pm at The Polish American Club at 4725 Lake Worth Road in Greenacres.
