Connecting the Homeless with Help

Agencies unite to serve the homeless in Palm Beach County

The Homeless Coalition of Palm Beach County is sponsoring Project Homeless Connect this Friday, April 24, at St. George's Center in Riviera Beach. This event brings all the agencies that serve those who are homeless together under one roof, for one day.

More than 200 people who are experiencing homelessness are expected to take part in the outreach day. Over 20 agencies will provide free services such as; health screenings, agency information and haircuts. The Homeless Coalition will offer a free meal, clothing and toiletries to those who are homeless.

The Homeless Coalition hosts Project Homeless Connect three to five times a year to get the homeless in our community the resources they need to rebuild their lives.

Please join us for Project Homeless Connect
